Part II - Statement of the Reasons for Detention

I find that the testimony and information submitted at the detention hearing establishes by \(\sigma\) clear and convincing evidence a preponderance of the evidence that:

- 1. Defendant is charged with a serious drug offense.
- 2. The evidence against defendant is strong.
- 3. A shooting occurred at defendant's residence within the past year, during which incident there were children present.
- 4. Defendant has a criminal history, including crimes of violence.
- 5. There was a loaded firearm in the car defendant was driving at the time of the alleged offense.

Part III – Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
